SAM LUCERO | THE COMPASS

Fr. Paul Demuth, pastor of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in Green Bay, pours holy water on the head of Harper Claire Liebmann, daughter of Bret and Joey Liebmann, during her baptism Dec. 27. The parish installed a new baptistry, which includes an immersion font for adult baptisms and the upper baptismal pool for infant baptisms, in early December.

Dear Rob,

On behalf of the entire parish and personally, I wish to thank you for all the services you and your company brought to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton over the past months. The new baptistry is all that we could have hoped for! The dreams and hopes that went into the planning of these projects were accomplished within schedule and are of high quality. I have had the opportunity to baptize a young lady in the adult pool and a baby in the upper pool. Both went very well and the families were thrilled to be the first ones using the new baptistry.

I want you to know that all the employees that came to work at our parish were very professional, courteous and very easy to work with. They made the necessary accommodations to accomplish the work within the schedule changes that were necessary because of parish events and funerals. Please thank them on my behalf. It was delightful to have them return to the parish with their families to show them the fruit of their labor! I hope all is well for you and your family. God bless you!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Paul Demuth
